AppleTree Early Learning Public Charter School prohibits discrimination on the basis of a student's race, color, religion, national origin, language spoken, intellectual or athletic ability, measures of achievement or aptitude, or status as a student with special needs.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a Federal law, requires that AELPCS, with certain exceptions, obtain your written consent prior to the disclosure of personally identifiable information from your child's education records. However, AELPCS may disclose appropriately designated "directory information" without written consent, unless you have advised the LEA to the contrary in accordance with LEA's procedures. The primary purpose of directory information is to allow AELPCS to include this type of information from your child's education records in certain school publications. If you do not want AELPCS to disclose directory information from your child's education records without your prior written consent, you must notify the LEA in writing by August 1, 2010.
